21 DAYS

PRAYER FOR 2021

If you are reading this, I thank God for you. That means you have committed to or are at least checking out what this 21 Days of Prayer is all about. It is all about us not doing things in our power and wisdom. It is all about us not having to keep ourselves motivated, happy, healthy and moving forward. It is all about not doing the same thing and expecting new results. It is about holding on to God tighter than ever before. It is about making sure every step is the step He has for us. It is about going before the Lord on behalf of our nation, our community, and our home. We have the responsibility to do this. God doesn't hold America responsible for calling out to Him. He holds Christians in America responsible for calling out to Him. I think we all sense a darkness, a tension, an anger in America. Have we stopped believing people can be saved, a nation can be changed? Let's let our togetherness in 21 Days of Prayer loudly proclaim to heaven, "We still believe!"

Inside this booklet you will find a guide for your prayers and for joining your church family in prayer. My prayer is that you can do everything inside this booklet, but we have indeed thrown a lot at you in this to give you multiple opportunities and ways to be involved during this time. There is an outline to pray alone for 21 days. There is an encouragement to gather with others and pray several times throughout this. There is a guide for doing a 21 Day Daniel Fast. There is the option of full fast for a day or two or three of your choosing throughout this. And fasting is not required, though we certainly see it encouraged by our Lord. What you will not find in here is cute memes and warm fuzzy thoughts. This is a war manual. I really believe you will sense that as you read through it. This is spiritual warfare. It is serious and it is real. Look through here and see what you can use and do. Make a commitment to yourself, to God, maybe to a mate or friend up front of what you are going to do, and then do it. Let's show the Lord for our nation, community, and home that we are going to believe on Him for 2021.

Gratefully, Your Pastor,

Randall T. Hahn

Fasting Guidelines

(a fast is a optional addition to this time of prayer)

Fasting is a spiritual discipline designed to better connect us with God. It's all about aligning ourselves with God and what He really wants to do. As a church, we fast together in order to deepen our relationship with God as well as get in step with His plan and purpose for us.

You can do a Daniel Fast or maybe take a day here and there to do a full fast. You may do 1-3 days, 10 days or the entire 21. You may start earlier or later to accommodate your schedule, but prayerfully consider adding some type of fast to this time of prayer over these 21 days. Choosing to substitute regular food intake with those disciplines that help us better connect with God—reading the Bible, praying, and journaling allows us to experience a genuine hunger for spending time with God.

Remember, the idea is to be realistic, not legalistic. Focus more on the details of connecting with God than the details of the menu, and you will discover the blessings of fasting.

Fasting Framework:

Sunday, January 10 • Begin the "Daniel Fast"

Introduce meals with pure foods of fruits and vegetables. This plan will continue for the next 21 days.

Sunday, January 31 • Break the Fast

Celebrate with your family by breaking the fast with the meal of your choice.

Option: • Try a 24-hour Liquid Fast

Drink water, natural fruit juice and herbal tea.

**If you have any known medical conditions or suspect such conditions, consult your doctor before beginning the fast.*

Daniel Fast Guidelines

(a fast is a optional addition to this time of prayer)

The Daniel Fast is a partial fast (see Daniel 1, 10:2-3), which means eliminating some common things from our daily diet, but with generous options still available. It is a focus on eating fruits and vegetables that are pure and simple. (A list of foods to eat and foods to avoid is below.)

If you have any condition which would prohibit you from participating in a fast from food, there are other options. Choose something from your daily routine (i.e. specific foods or beverages, television, other technology, etc.) and fast in that manner for the next 21 days. Remember, the details are not as important as the spirit in which you participate.

During this time you will undoubtedly discover some amazing benefits of fasting. As God blesses your life, we encourage you to write down your prayers and experiences. We hope you will share this as a family.

**If you have any known medical conditions or suspect such conditions, consult your doctor before beginning the fast.*

Section 2: Day 4 - January 13

Lord, May I Love What You Love

Thanksgiving & Praise: Take the time to read and pray through the list of 21 reasons to thank and praise God on page 6. Do this daily. It can be as quick as a read-through reminder or pause to pray over one or two that strike you that day. Maybe even jot one or two of your own at the bottom.

Daily Confession: Heavenly Father, may I love what you love. May I love ALL peoples like you do – that you gave your only son Jesus Christ for ALL. Let my love for ALL peoples go beyond words. Also, may I love your word enough to know it and live it more than ever before. May I love and pursue righteousness, holiness, justice, peace, grace, and truth in everything I do.

May I Love People — All People

Scripture:

“Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?” And he said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.” - Matthew 22:36-40

Prayer Points:

1. Lord, let every idea and stereotype that I have in my heart that separates me from loving others be crucified in the name of Jesus.
2. Let every wall of separation erected in my life racially, denominationally, politically, socio-economically, and in any other way be eradicated by God’s truth in Jesus’ name.
3. Lord, help me to love my neighbors more than myself. Help me to love those in my household, my co-workers, my classmates, my church family, my neighbors, and wherever I find myself.
4. Let your love for people compel me to share the Gospel with those around me.
5. I pray that the love I have for people is genuine, tangible, and life-giving in the name of Jesus.
6. Lord, let the level of love and concern you showed me by dying on the cross be the level of love and concern I show others in the name of Jesus.

Section 2: Day 5 - January 14

Lord, May I Love What You Love

Thanksgiving & Praise: Take the time to read and pray through the list of 21 reasons to thank and praise God on page 6. Do this daily. It can be as quick as a read-through reminder or pause to pray over one or two that strike you that day. Maybe even jot one or two of your own at the bottom.

Also, may I love your word enough to know it and live it more than ever before. May I love and pursue righteousness, holiness, justice, peace, grace, and truth in everything I do.

May I Love Your Word, Know Your Word, and Live By Your Word

Scripture:

This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. -Joshua 1:8

Prayer Points:

1. Father, help me daily make time to read and meditate on your word.
2. Holy Spirit, help me live according to Psalm 119:11. Help me hide your word in my heart so that I do not sin against you.

4. Let your word brightly illuminate the road of life that I am walking. Let it expose the dangers of life, the pitfalls, and the slippery path.
5. Lord, let me be rewarded for revering your commandment. Proverbs 13:13 declares “Whoever despises the word brings destruction on himself, but he who reveres the commandment will be rewarded.”
6. Lord, let your word be firmly fixed in my heart just as it is firmly fixed in Heaven.
7. Lord, thank you for your promise in Isaiah 55:11 that your word will not return empty. It will accomplish its purpose where you send it. Let your word accomplish its purpose in my life.

Thanksgiving & Praise: Take the time to read and pray through the list of 21 reasons to thank and praise God on page 6. Do this daily. It can be as quick as a read-through reminder or pause to pray over one or two that strike you that day. Maybe even jot one or two of your own at the bottom.

Do I Love Righteousness, Holiness, Justice & Peace, Grace & Truth?

Scripture:

Thus says the Lord: "Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, let not the mighty man boast in his might, let not the rich man boast in his riches, but let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the Lord who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. For in these things I delight, declares the Lord." - Jeremiah 9:23-24

Prayer Points:

1. Lord, may the truth from your word, the truth about myself and the truth about those around me bring me the freedom to live holy and righteously.
2. Lord, let my words, actions, and attitude display your grace, your unmerited favor. Help me to extend grace to people just as much as I need grace extended to me.
3. Lord, let me not boast in wisdom, nor might, neither in riches. Let my boast be in your steadfast love, justice, and righteousness.
4. As a citizen of your Kingdom, help me to understand and know you, that I am also practicing steadfast love, justice, and righteousness.
5. Help me pursue peace with all people and holiness with which no man can see you.
6. Help me seek good and not evil, so that I may live; so that the God of hosts will be with me as declared in Amos 5:14.
7. Lord, let me follow righteousness and justice because Proverbs 21:3 states that "To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice."

Are You Ready for His Return?

There are seven things you should know so that you are ready:

1. We are all born into sin. Romans 3:23 says that "All have sinned and falling short of the glory of God."
2. According to Isaiah 64:6, "All our righteousness is as filthy rags before God."
3. Sin leads to death but we can have life in Christ Jesus. Romans 6:23 says, "The wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life through Christ our Lord."
4. We can exchange the wages of sin for life by believing in the Lord Jesus Christ who came in human flesh to pay for our sin and reconcile us to the Father.
5. Romans 5:8 states that, "God demonstrated His love towards us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."
6. John 3:16 helps us understand that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son. That whosoever believes in Him will not perish but have everlasting life."
7. A restored relationship with God can become your reality just by confessing with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. God's promise to you in Romans 10:9 is that you will be saved.

If you have not accepted Jesus Christ as your savior and want to do so now, please say this prayer:

*Lord Jesus, I ask you into my heart. Please be my Savior and Lord.
I surrender all of me to you. I repent of my sin and ask you to take control of my life in Jesus' name.*

Turning your life over to Jesus gives you the power to become the son/daughter of God. That is what John 1:12 promises you. You get to reign with Him for eternity.

Next Steps: We are so excited that you decided to follow Jesus. We would love to know that you have decided to follow Him and help you with the next steps.
