Celebrating Milestones: Getting a Driver's License

With freedom comes responsibility. Teach your new driver about safety, boundaries, and the importance of wise choices on the road.

Family Activities:

- Let them drive Grandma or Grandpa out for ice cream.
- Set up a location-sharing app for safety like Life 360.
- Tuck Scripture or notes in the car.
- Create a Christian driving playlist.
- Gift a keychain with a verse or meaningful symbol.
- Make a DIY car survival kit (blanket, meds, flashlight, etc.).
- Give them a seatbelt cutter for emergencies.

Family Talking Points:

- Share your own “new driver” stories.
- Discuss curfew and why it matters.
- Teach basic navigation and car care.
- Emphasize safe, distraction-free driving.
- Talk about traffic laws, emergencies, and God-honoring choices behind the wheel.
- Talk about peer pressure and how to stand strong.

Special Celebrations:

- Host a “licensed to drive” dinner.
- Plan a first road trip as a family.
- Do a car care session together.
- Visit a local landmark—let them drive!
