Celebrating Milestones: High School Graduation

Graduation marks the start of adulthood—celebrate it with meaningful moments, wise guidance, and godly friendships.

Family Activities:

- Create a “prayers for the future” jar with notes from loved ones.
- Make a graduation scrapbook or memory book.
- Set up a yard sign to welcome them home.
- Plan a family outing to celebrate their accomplishment.
- Gift something sentimental (jewelry, keepsake, book).
- Frame their diploma or favorite grad photo.
- Set up a photo booth for fun pictures.
- Start a family graduation tradition.
- Set up a prayer chain just for them.

Family Talking Points:

- Share stories from their school journey.
- Talk about future goals and dreams.
- What church and community will they choose?
- What kind of friendships will they pursue?
- How can their career reflect their faith?

Special Gatherings:

- Visit colleges and local ministries together.
- Host a home celebration with speeches and decorations.
- Attend Senior Summit and Graduation Sunday at The Heights.
