Praying for My Marriage

One of the most impactful ways to strengthen your marriage is through prayer. This guide was created to help couples pray together, seek God together, and grow closer together. Use these Scripture-based prayers to invite God into every part of your relationship—from your thoughts to your communication, and from your family decisions to the atmosphere in your home. You don't have to get the words perfect—just show up and pray.

“I will give them singleness of heart and action, so that they will always fear me and that all will go well with them and for their children after them.”

— Jeremiah 32:39

Our Relationship with God

God, we invite You into the core of our marriage. Help us love You with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength. Convict us of any sin that is separating us from You. Bind us together so that nothing will come between us.
Ephesians 2:22, Matthew 22:37-39

Guidance for Our Family

Father, guide our marriage and family. Help us to face the struggles of life by depending on You and leaning on each other. Lead us as we pray together, read Your Word, and seek You as we make family decisions. Give us the desire to follow Your will. Impress Your commandments on our hearts, and show us how to impress them on our family.
Psalms 32:8, Proverbs 3:5-6, Proverbs 16:9

Purity of Heart and Mind

Lord, we ask that You would put a passion in our hearts to model a godly lifestyle in our words and actions. Help us to honor our marriage commitment through faithfulness, honesty, and purity.
2 Corinthians 7:1, Proverbs 4:23-24

Protection Over Our Marriage

Father, protect us from the war that wages against our family. May we build our marriage on the unshakable foundation of Your Word. Help us to fight together, and protect us from fighting foolishly against each other.
Ephesians 6:10-18, Ecclesiastes 4:12

Peace in Our Marriage and Home

Father, help us to be unified in our home. We pray that the trials of our day draw us into total dependence on You. Help us to think about things that are pure and lovely so Your peace will be with us. May our words and actions be calm and kind toward one another.
