Moving Out of Your Parents' House

Leaving home is a big step toward independence—whether for school, work, or a new season of life. It's a chance to celebrate your young adult's identity in Christ, their calling to live faithfully, and their need for wisdom and community.

Family Activities:

- Commissioning Prayer Night

Pray over them with family and mentors (Proverbs 3:5–6; Philippians 1:6).

- Household Blessing

Give a framed verse or a housewarming basket with Scripture and notes.

- Packing Party or Send-Off Meal

Make moving a time of shared memories, prayers, and encouragement.

- First Home Dedication

Visit the new space, pray, and dedicate it to the Lord.

Family Talking Points:

- How will your new home reflect your walk with Jesus?

- How will you stay connected to church and spiritual community?

- How will you handle loneliness, temptation, or unstructured time?

- What does faithful stewardship of money look like?

- What excites you most? What makes you nervous?

Special Gathering:

- Dedication Dinner or Prayer Night

Invite family, friends, and mentors to share stories, pray, and send them off with joy.
