Museum of the Bible Washington, D.C.

Experience the Bible like never before! Take a family trip to Washington, D.C. to explore the Museum of the Bible. You and your students can dive into the story of scripture through world-class exhibits, immersive technology, and hands-on learning.

Take a trip back in time as you walk through ancient villages to see how the Bible shaped cultures, languages, and history.

As a parent, you will love watching your student light up with curiosity as they see the biblical narrative unfold right before their eyes. A fun trip like this could be packed with opportunities for meaningful conversations and deeper understanding of God's Word, together!
